

CONDITION OF SANITARIUM IN BAD SHAPE

Committee of Inquiry Reports to Governor Ferguson.

FOOD IS INADEQUATE

Salaries Paid Do Not Insure Efficient Care.

FOR INSANE INMATES

Sanitary System So Extremely Poor.

Ottawa, O. T., Jan. 25.—The committee appointed some time ago by Governor Ferguson of Oklahoma—Dr. Cook of Washington, Dr. Werner of New York and Dr. Elliott of Blackwell—made a full report of their findings today. The report is exhaustive, covering a great many topics, and covers every detail of the institution and the condition of the inmates.

The general tenor of the report is that the Sanitarium is not alive to the responsibilities of the institution, and that it is in a state of extreme poverty, and that it is in a state of extreme poverty, and that it is in a state of extreme poverty.

The committee says that the food is inadequate and not of a kind always suitable to the needs of the inmates. The report states that the pay allowed to the inmates is such that they are not able to care for themselves, and that they are not able to care for themselves.

The committee says that the food is inadequate and not of a kind always suitable to the needs of the inmates. The report states that the pay allowed to the inmates is such that they are not able to care for themselves, and that they are not able to care for themselves.

The committee says that the food is inadequate and not of a kind always suitable to the needs of the inmates. The report states that the pay allowed to the inmates is such that they are not able to care for themselves, and that they are not able to care for themselves.

It was on account of this contract that Governor Ferguson was removed from office by President Roosevelt.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Hartman

TO FORCE THEIR OPENING.

Congress May Prevent Pasture Leases
in New Country.

Guthrie, O. T., Jan. 25.—A special in the Capital from Washington says: Among the various bills introduced in congress of interest to Oklahoma and Indian territories are the following:

Representative Stephens of Texas, has introduced a bill to prevent the sale of the public lands in the Indian territories to the Indians, and to prevent the sale of the public lands in the Indian territories to the Indians.

Indicate Flynn has introduced a bill in the house amending the act passed in 1890, prohibiting the sale of public or local lands in the Indian territories for the purpose of territorial improvement.

How many mothers realize that when the baby's advent is expected that they need strength for two instead of one? Women, weak, nervous, "just able to drag along," need themselves confronted with something that will give them strength, not strength for themselves, but strength for their babies.

The way to ensure health and strength to mother and child is to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as a preparative for motherhood. It brings the mother's strength up to the requirements of nature, so that she has strength to give her child. It nourishes the nerves and so quiescences them.

It encourages a healthy appetite and induces refreshing sleep. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, covers, in sent free on receipt of 21 cent stamps in any form of mailing matter. Address Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"77"

The city is full of Colds and Grip, every one is coughing and sneezing.

To avoid taking Cold, keep the feet dry and wear warm clothing.

A lighter shoe at night a high-necked garment set aside—just for once to wear an evening gown—are fraught with danger.

A change from a thick business suit to evening dress makes many a sore chest.

Going out of a superheated house, hall, church or theatre, is a frequent cause.

Use care in your dress, avoid exposure, carry and take "SEVENTY-SEVEN."

It stops a Cold at the start and "breaks up" Colds that hang on.

GRIP

population of not less than 5,000 persons, up to six per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district, for the erection of necessary school buildings, and the purchasing of ground upon which the buildings may be erected.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

Mr. Curtis has introduced a bill in the house authorizing William C. Carter to establish a ferry across the Arkansas river in Indian Territory, said ferry shall be at all times so managed and kept as to afford reasonable and proper means for the passage of the United States mail and the accommodation of the public.

The bill is to enable Oklahoma City and Edmond to issue additional bonds for school purposes. The act of 1898 restricted the issuance of bonds to four per cent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the district.

The bill increases it to six per cent, thus giving an additional margin of twenty per cent to the two cities above mentioned, the proceeds of which are to be used for providing additional school facilities.

JOURNALISTS GOING TO CUT THE MOST ICE

Prince Henry Will Have Time
With Newspaper Boys.

WON'T BE INTERVIEWED

But Will Give Them Few Tips on the Side.

Berlin, Jan. 25.—When Emperor William bids Prince Henry of Prussia farewell prior to the latter's departure for the United States, their parting will be a simple private affair. No speeches for publication will be exchanged. The leave taking will assume the form of a military act, in which an officer receives the last instructions from his superior before going on an important mission. It is understood that his majesty will give Prince Henry a written memorandum of what he wishes his royal brother to communicate to President Roosevelt. Prince Henry, who is now here, will return to his home in Bremen to embark for the United States. The various members of the Prince's party will assemble at Bremen February 1. The sailing of Prince Henry will not be marked by any special ceremony, nor, so far as known, will any member of the royal house see the prince off.

The foregoing are the arrangements as communicated to the correspondent of the Associated Press today, but it is still quite possible that the Prince's departure will be marked by a more public manner at Bremen. This, at least, is the hope of some members of the suite. The dinner to be given in Prince Henry's honor under the auspices of the New York State Zeitung, to the press of the United States, is the feature of the Prince's departure which is attracting the most attention here. Prince Henry himself asked particularly about this feature of the program, and when told that some of the editors would probably travel three thousand miles to be present he expressed wonder.

Dr. Barth says, in the Nation today: "That Prince Henry, as the representative of the German emperor, comes in particularly contact with the press is a particularly happy thought. The modern spirit inspiring the whole expedition is brought sharply into view through the Emperor's brother becoming the guests of journalists."

Prince Henry's attitude toward the press when in the United States has been the subject of consideration by his counselors. While the prince will not be interviewed, he desires to show respect for the press, and will give an audience to the newspaper men, with the understanding that he is not to be quoted. What the prince has to say will be learned through the official channels. Details of the trip interests Emperor William, who has even given instructions regarding the flowers which will grace the tables at the luncheon board of the Hohenzollern. His majesty has made of Berlin and New York on the same scale. When he first compared them the other day the emperor remarked, "Why, New York would stretch to Potsdam." His majesty then asked a member of his household the number of New York's inhabitants. "New York has three millions," was the reply.

"No," said the emperor, "four millions." His majesty has taken the leading New York newspapers since Prince Henry's trip was planned. He has read articles which he thought would interest the prince's suit and has sent them to the prince.

The principal German newspapers will send special correspondents to New York on the Kronprinz Wilhelm. Among them will be Captain Dannenhauer of the Lokal Anzeiger, Alexander von Hugel of the Vossische Zeitung, and Konrad Albert, editor of the Berlin Morning Post. Dr. Barth in the Nation, dwelling on the political significance of this trip recognizes the great services of the United States ambassador here, Andrew D. White, in preventing misunderstanding between the two countries.

"He has ever been ready to enlighten the public opinion of his country, and to show that Germany entertained no enmity plans against the United States. Mr. White's political work has not been in vain. Prince Henry's visit is an impressive manifestation of the German emperor's desire to cherish its friendship for the American republic."

ENGLAND'S UNKIND WORDS.

Report Favoring Acceptance of Panama Offers Give the Lion a Pain.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The report of the Isthmian canal commission at Washington favoring the acceptance of the offer of the Panama company to sell its property and rights to the United States for $40,000,000, causes some unkindly comment here. The Saturday Review says: "The Americans can do one thing to perfection—they can drive a hard bargain. The sufferer on this occasion is France, which was completely hoodwinked by the American bluff. The Panama directors have agreed to sell their rights for $40,000,000 and the United States will pay much less at the proposal. The Americans have made a very good bargain; better, perhaps, than is seen in other national dealings."

The Outlook, somewhat in the same vein, says: "With extreme cleverness the Americans under cover of establishing a great national principle, made the French owners of the Panama route eager to sell their property. The Americans were perfectly persuaded all along that the Panama route was the better one, in almost every particular. The thrifty Frenchman, out of whose pocket the money was originally wheeled, must grin and bear this final share as best he may. Completed by American skill and energy, the canal will be a boon to international commerce and will probably give impetus to the construction of the American merchant marine, with a navy to match it."

REWARD FOR ROBERTS

Governor Ferguson Offers $500 for Arrest and Conviction of Man

Guthrie, O. T., Jan. 25.—Governor Ferguson today offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of John Roberts, charged with the murder of Y. N. Higginsham and two sons, George and John. The murder was committed on December 29.

GAVE CLASS PARTY

Continued From Sixth Page.

seaman, Margaret Roberts, Edna Hayworth, Katherine Hill, Messrs. Homer, Roy, Colby, Charles Myers, Clyde, Roy, Fred, Pearce, Edwin High, Frank Hayworth, Carl Oldfield and Clarence Blakes.

PROGRESSIVE WOMEN CIRCLE.

The Progressive Women Circle No. 6 was royally entertained by Mrs. Charter Thursday afternoon. Recitations of rare merit were given by Mrs. S. H. Taylor, Mrs. J. C. Copeland, Musical selections were finely rendered by Mrs. Burgess and Mrs. Charter. Mrs. Martindale read a paper on the work of the P. W. C. in the city. The society is proud of this club should live in preference to many others. She said: "The P. W. C. is both educational and altruistic. It is a club of women who are not only interested in their own improvement, but in the improvement of the community. It has members on both sides of the woman suffrage question. The correspondence with the other circles, 26 in number, represents almost the entire number of states helps give the members a broader view of womanhood. They learn to know and love women in other states, and they learn to know and love the conditions and customs are very different from their own, whose views are opposed to theirs, whose experiences are not to them, and who have nothing in common with them except the life that God gives to all his creatures. There are no sects, no creeds, no dogmas, no politics. It is simply means to grow along every possible line, and it holds itself open to every helpful suggestion. Its members are not only interested in their own improvement, but in the improvement of the community. It has members on both sides of the woman suffrage question. The correspondence with the other circles, 26 in number, represents almost the entire number of states helps give the members a broader view of womanhood. They learn to know and love women in other states, and they learn to know and love the conditions and customs are very different from their own, whose views are opposed to theirs, whose experiences are not to them, and who have nothing in common with them except the life that God gives to all his creatures. There are no sects, no creeds, no dogmas, no politics. It is simply means to grow along every possible line, and it holds itself open to every helpful suggestion. Its members are not only interested in their own improvement, but in the improvement of the community. It has members on both sides of the woman suffrage question. The correspondence with the other circles, 26 in number, represents almost the entire number of states helps give the members a broader view of womanhood. They learn to know and love women in other states, and they learn to know and love the conditions and customs are very different from their own, whose views are opposed to theirs, whose experiences are not to them, and who have nothing in common with them except the life that God gives to all his creatures. There are no sects, no creeds, no dogmas, no politics. It is simply means to grow along every possible line, and it holds itself open to every helpful suggestion. Its members are not only interested in their own improvement, but in the improvement of the community. It has members on both sides of the woman suffrage question. The correspondence with the other circles, 26 in number, represents almost the entire number of states helps give the members a broader view of womanhood. They learn to know and love women in other states, and they learn to know and love the conditions and customs are very different from their own, whose views are opposed to theirs, whose experiences are not to them, and who have nothing in common with them except the life that God gives to all his creatures. There are no sects, no creeds, no dogmas, no politics. It is simply means to grow along every possible line, and it holds itself open to every helpful suggestion. Its members are not only interested in their own improvement, but in the improvement of the community. It has members on both sides of the woman suffrage question. The correspondence with the other circles, 26 in number, represents almost the entire number of states helps give the members a broader view of womanhood. They learn to know and love women in other states, and they learn to know and love the conditions and customs are very different from their own, whose views are opposed to theirs, whose experiences are not to them, and who have nothing in common with them except the life that God gives to all his creatures. There are no sects, no creeds, no dogmas, no politics. It is simply means to grow along every possible line, and it holds itself open to every helpful suggestion. Its members are not only interested in their own improvement, but in the improvement of the community. It has members on both sides of the woman suffrage question. The correspondence with the other circles, 26 in number, represents almost the entire number of states helps give the members a broader view of womanhood. They learn to know and love women in other states, and they learn to know and love the conditions and customs are very different from their own, whose views are opposed to theirs, whose experiences are not to them, and who have nothing in common with them except the life that God gives to all his creatures. There are no sects, no creeds, no dogmas, no politics. It is simply means to grow along every possible line, and it holds itself open to every helpful suggestion. Its members are not only interested in their own improvement, but in the improvement of the community. It has members on both sides of the woman suffrage question. The correspondence with the other circles, 26 in number, represents almost the entire number of states helps give the members a broader view of womanhood. They learn to know and love women in other states, and they learn to know and love the conditions and customs are very different from their own, whose views are opposed to theirs, whose experiences are not to them, and who have nothing in common with them except the life that God gives to all his creatures. There are no sects, no creeds, no dogmas, no politics. It is simply means to grow along every possible line, and it holds itself open to every helpful suggestion. Its members are not only interested in their own improvement, but in the improvement of the community. It has members on both sides of the woman suffrage question. The correspondence with the other circles, 26 in number, represents almost the entire number of states helps give the members a broader view of womanhood. They learn to know and love women in other states, and they learn to know and love the conditions and customs are very different from their own, whose views are opposed to theirs, whose experiences are not to them, and who have nothing in common with them except the life that God gives to all his creatures. There are no sects, no creeds, no dogmas, no politics. It is simply means to grow along every possible line, and it holds itself open to every helpful suggestion. Its members are not only interested in their own improvement, but in the improvement of the community. It has members on both sides of the woman suffrage question. The correspondence with the other circles, 26 in number, represents almost the entire number of states helps give the members a broader view of womanhood. They learn to know and love women in other states, and they learn to know and love the conditions and customs are very different from their own, whose views are opposed to theirs, whose experiences are not to them, and who have nothing in common with them except the life that God gives to all his creatures. There are no sects, no creeds, no dogmas, no politics. It is simply means to grow along every possible line, and it holds itself open to every helpful suggestion. Its members are not only interested in their own improvement, but in the improvement of the community. It has members on both sides of the woman suffrage question. The correspondence with the other circles, 26 in number, represents almost the entire number of states helps give the members a broader view of womanhood. They learn to know and love women in other states, and they learn to know and love the conditions and customs are very different from their own, whose views are opposed to theirs, whose experiences are not to them, and who have nothing in common with them except the life that God gives to all his creatures. There are no sects, no creeds, no dogmas, no politics. It is simply means to grow along every possible line, and it holds itself open to every helpful suggestion. Its members are not only interested in their own improvement, but in the improvement of the community. It has members on both sides of the woman suffrage question. The correspondence with the other circles, 26 in number, represents almost the entire number of states helps give the members a broader view of womanhood. They learn to know and love women in other states, and they learn to know and love the conditions and customs are very different from their own, whose views are opposed to theirs, whose experiences are not to them, and who have nothing in common with them except the life that God gives to all his creatures. There are no sects, no creeds, no dogmas, no politics. It is simply means to grow along every possible line, and it holds itself open to every helpful suggestion. Its members are not only interested in their own improvement, but in the improvement of the community. It